LOST KITTY - Her name is Stella, she was last seen on Indianola rd behind rainbow self storage on indianola cutoff by hwy 101. She was possibly pregnant at the time she got out. This was my 17 year old niece's cat she misses her terribly. i understand somebody may have taken her in as a pet, but either way we just want to know that she's okay not out in the cold or dead somewhere. if anybody can give any update we appreciate it. thank you so much
