Brown and black stripes and black spots white neck chest and belly. Has what looks like a bleach spot on her left ear. Also 2 orange stripes close to the end of her tail the other ones are black. She jumped out of her carrier at the front door and I haven't seen her since It was a brand new home for her. It's been almost a year at the end of August. I am reaching out again. Actually I haven't stopped looking for her. Her 5 brothers and I Miss her terribly. Please please if you know anything help us. Thank you
